About The LGCU Website

Lenkeson Global Christian University is an online christian university that was created to provide global access to a higher education through an online platform. Our website Lenkesongcu.org was built to help students, faculty, and interested members in joining our online community. This website provides information as well as helps users to interact with us on all school related items. This tutorial will help to provide you more information along with a guide on the different areas of our website.

Home Page

The home or landing page is where our visitors begin when they access the Lenkesongcu.org website. Below you will find some of the key utilities of this page.

1. Contact Us Button

- a. This button will navigate users to our Contact Us form giving them the ability to send a message to our administration staff who will be able to promptly respond to any questions.

2. How To Translate Website

- a. This link will show users how to translate the entire website into another language.

3. Search

- a. This search tool allows users to search the lenkesongcu.org website for specific keywords.

As you scroll down the page you will find other helpful items and links that help to paint the picture of what Lenkeson Global Christian University is about.

1. University Alerts

- These alerts will help to show important university updates and new information.

Areas Of Study

In the Area of study section on the homepage users will find the different schools of study that LGCU offers. Clicking the “Learn More” link in each section will navigate users to that school of study which will provide them more information regarding the school and the different degrees that are offered under that school.

Footer

The website footer at the bottom of each page provides links to our social media outlets, general hours of operation, and quick links to some of the websites pages.

About

Our About page provides users more information on what our university is about and some of the pillars that we founded upon. The content areas of this page include:

- The LGCU Mission
- Lenkeson Meaning
- Our Core Values
- Letter From Our President
- Statement of Faith

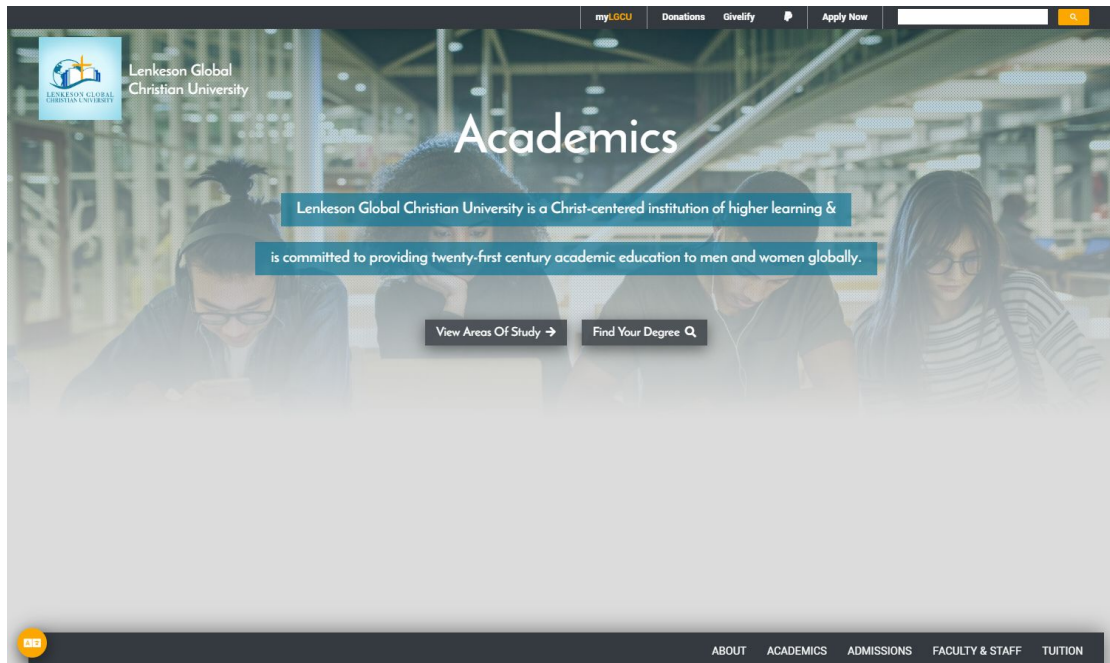

Each of these sections goes back to our theme of painting the full picture about LGCU and what this university stands for.

Academics

Academics is a very important part of any education institution, our academics page was built to help potential students navigate and find the degree that fits them. There are two major sections that make up this page which are the:

- Find Your Degree Tool
  - This is an interactive tool that allows users to search for a specific degree based on the Area of Study and Degree level that is being sought after.
- Areas Of Study
  - Guided information on each school of study within our university along with the degrees within that school as well as how to get started with applying.

Find Your Degree

The Find Your Degree tool helps users drill down to degree options that fit their search criteria which include:

- Areas Of Study
  - This will narrow down to the degrees within that school, users are allowed to select multiple schools of study.
- Degrees
  - This will narrow down the degrees by the degree level or levels that is being sought after.

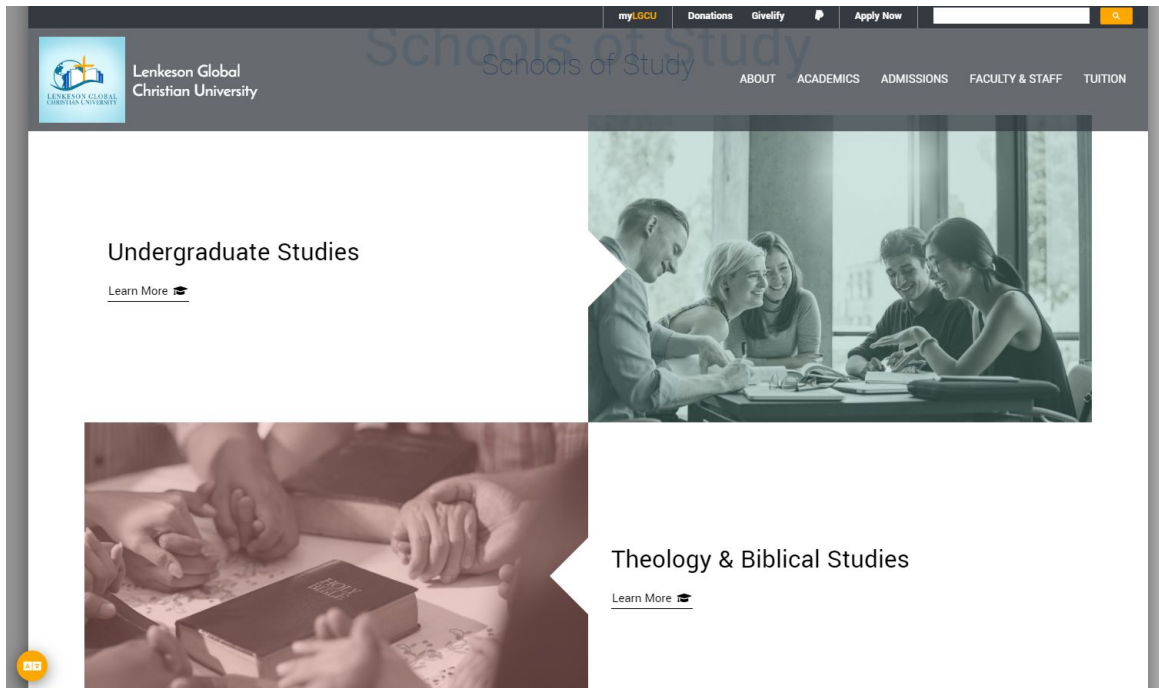

If users select both Areas Of Study and Degree there will be a cross reference search between both categories returning all degrees that fall into the categories. Users can also navigate even further by using a text search within the box of results which will search the titles of degrees vs what is being searched. Once the list is filtered and a degree is found users may click an item and get navigated to the individual page for that major.

Areas Of Study

Similar to the area of study section on the home page the users can select learn more on a specific school and will be navigated to that schools page.

School Of Study Individual Page

Each school of study has an individual page that contains a list of all of the majors in that school separated by degree level as well as a brief description about that school content area. Clicking on one of the degree links will navigate users to the individual page for the major.

Major Individual Page

Each major page contains information such as a snapshot of the curriculum for that degree.
